

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR DEGREE-SEEKING STUDENTS

If you wish to take courses toward earning a Master's, Educational Specialist, or Doctoral degree, you must complete and submit a graduate Degree-Seeking Application. You may obtain information and submit an application for admission into a Graduate Degree Program in one of the following three ways:

- Apply online: You can apply and pay the admission application fee instantly online by going to our website at <http://www.indstate.edu/sogs/>
- Apply by mail: You may request and submit a print (hard) copy of the admission application by contacting the School of Graduate Studies at the following address:

Indiana State University
School of Graduate Studies
Tirey Hall, Room 183
Terre Haute, IN 47809
United States of America
Email: grdstudy@isugw.indstate.edu
Phone: (812) 237-3005
TOLL FREE: 1-800-444-GRAD (4723)

You can also download and print a copy of our application from our website, complete it, and mail it to us at the above address.

- Apply in person: You can apply, in person, by visiting the School of Graduate Studies, which is located in Room 183 of Tirey Hall, and complete this application. The telephone number is (812) 237-3005, or TOLL FREE at 1-800-444-GRAD (4723)

Your application must include a completed admission form, a $35.00 application fee, official transcripts from each college or university (other than ISU) that you have attended, and any additional admission requirements of the department/program where admission is being sought. Please note that some academic units have earlier deadlines. If your application will not meet the above deadlines, or for earlier program-specific deadlines, please contact the School of Graduate Studies for assistance or visit our website.

Normally, upon receipt of your application, you will receive a response that acknowledges receipt of your application and other communication from the School of Graduate Studies within two weeks. Once admitted, you will receive correspondence and instructions regarding academic advisement and registration.

International Students: If you are an international student, you must mail your application and application fee to:
